

Happy Birth of the Báb!

Birth of Báb

Bahá'í

Bab

An observance of the anniversary of the birth on Oct. 20, 1819, in Shiraz, Persia (now Iran), of Siyyid 'Ali-Muhammad, who later took the title of “the Báb,” meaning “the Gate.” The Báb is a prominent figure of the Baha'i Faith.

The Birth of Báb is a joyous event and one of the nine holy days of the year when work is suspended.

Date

- The date varies year to year. The Bahá'í day ends and a new one begins at sunset; consequently, the day on which a Feast or Holy Day is observed begins at sunset of the day before the Gregorian calendar dates listed.

Greetings

Wishing a celebrant “Happy Birth of the Báb” or “Happy Twin Birthdays” is welcome.

Common Practices and Celebrations

- Bahá'ís gather to pray and read from the Baha'i writings.
- It is a joyful celebration of singing, dancing and fellowship.

Common Dietary Restrictions

There are no dietary restrictions, but many follow a vegetarian diet of vegetables, fruits and grains.

Impact to U-M Community

- Those observing the Bahá'í Faith suspend work and school to celebrate the Birth of Báb.
