Dashain

Hinduism/Nepal

dash-hane

Dashain is a 15-day festival, one of the biggest in Nepal, celebrated by Hindus there and around the world. The first 10 days are a celebration of the Hindu goddess Durga's battle with a demon called Mahishasura (Mah-heesh-ah-sur-ah) and the symbolic triumph of good over evil.

In addition to honoring the goddess Durga, Dashain is a festival of fertility, good harvest, and family. Different days represent different manifestations of the goddess Durga. Celebrations emphasize family bonds with activities like kite flying, playing cards, buying and wearing new clothes, feasts, and gatherings.
