Birth of Bahá'u'lláh

Bahá'í

bah-OH-ah-lah

Bahá'ís observe the anniversary of the birth of Baha'u'llah who was born on Nov. 12, 1817, in Tehran, Persia.

Baha'u'llah, which means the “Glory of God,” is the founder of the Bahá'í Faith. This is one of the nine holy days of the year when work is suspended; the Bahá'í Faith is based on justice, unity, and peace. The Birth of Bahá'u'lláh is one of nine holy days in the Bahá'í calendar.

This collection of information sheets on major holidays and cultural events is a joint partnership of the School of Information staff, the Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, and the Office of the Provost. Facts have been vetted by U-M's Association of Religious Counselors (ARC), and other campus groups. Public feedback is welcome; please email DEIHolidayFacts@umich.edu.

Date

- The date varies year to year. The Bahá'í day ends and a new one begins at sunset; consequently, the day on which a Feast or Holy Day is observed begins at sunset of the day before the Gregorian calendar dates listed.
